

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS FOR SAT AND ACT ENTRANCE EXAMS

- Extended time
 - Only if the disability causes them to work more slowly than others
 - May not be necessary for every section
 - If necessary for reading, will be provided for every section
- Reading and seeing accommodations
 - Large-print test book
 - Braille with raised line drawings
 - Tactile graphics with a human reader or prerecorded audio
 - Assistive technology, such as text-to-speech
- Recording responses
 - Large-print answer sheet
 - Recording answers accommodations
 - Computer for word processing for essay and short answer only
 - Record answers in their test books
 - Scribe to record both multiple-choice and essay or short answer
- Use of four-function calculator
- Assistive technology
 - Must request each device or software separately
 - Electronic magnifying machines
 - Text-to-speech (screen readers) and speech-to-text
 - Electronic/talking calculators
- Breaks
 - Extended time (10 minutes)
 - Additional (5 minutes each)
- Other accommodations
 - Signing or orally presenting instructors
 - Printed copy of verbal instructions
 - Colored overlays
 - Preferential seating
 - Wheelchair accessibility
 - School-based setting
 - Permission for food, drink, or medication
 - Permission to test blood sugar and access to testing supplies

COVID-19 Updates:

- Check the for updates related to COVID-19 and guidelines for participating in testing
- Check the test center's website for any additional or specific entry requirements, including College Board or local public health guidelines
- If students don't feel well on test day, they should contact Customer Service immediately to set a new test date.

SOURCE:

<https://www.act.org/content/act/en/products-and-services/the-act-educator/the-act-test/accommodations.html>

<https://accommodations.collegeboard.org/>