

Finding Your Tribe

A questionnaire to help you make friends and develop a social circle within your new community.

1. What teams, clubs, or interest groups were you part of at your last location?
2. What teams, clubs, or interest groups were you part of at your last location?
3. What teams, clubs, or interest groups were you part of at your last location?
4. What current interests would you like to explore further?
5. Where are you likely to find others who share these interests?
6. What sports have you played, or would you be interested in playing?
7. What mentoring groups are available in your new location?
8. How did you connect with a mentor at your last location?
9. What do you like about your friends?
10. Can you think of others in your new location who share these same qualities?

11. What do you and your friends do together for fun?

12. Where could you go to do these same activities at your new location?

13. What new clubs does your school offer that you might like to learn more about?

14. Is there a cause or program that other students or children volunteer with?

15. What upcoming cultural or community event would you like to explore?

16. What is something special and unique about you?

17. In what settings will others see and appreciate this about you?

18. Is there a public park or playground near you where you can connect with other children or youth your age?

Don't give up! Friendships take time and effort to develop. Keep trying and know that there are others with your interests in your new community – you just have to find them!